Mount St. Joseph Academy
2013-2014

Our Scrapbook

Letter From the Principal

Dear Class of 2014,

You have reached the culmination of thirteen years of education. Your senior year has arrived! There is every reason to believe that you, like the classes that preceded you, have set a high bar for all classes to follow. You have used this powerful opportunity to define your identity as a class, yourself as a young adult, and your lasting impact on MSJ and the Mountie tradition.

Certainly you have experienced mixed emotions at this time. As you leave the security of Mount St. Joseph Academy and pursue your goals, you may be uncertain of what the future will bring. These feelings are natural, but I am confident that MSJ has provided you the education necessary to reach the next level. You now need to do your part by setting challenging goals, exhibiting a strong work ethic, always striving to be the best that you can be, and never giving up. I'm sure you are looking forward to college and beyond. Wherever life takes you, I wish you a splendid journey.

Your families have spent the last four years making numerous sacrifices for you. You have worked very hard over the years so that you and your family can be truly proud of your accomplishments.

My prayers and best wishes are with you as you go. Always remember to give thanks to God for the many blessings you receive each day and for guidance as you plan for your future.

Never forget: Once a Mountie, always a Mountie!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Wilkes

Dedication

BILL VAN LIEW

"The mediocre teacher tells. The good teacher explains. The superior teacher demonstrates. The great teacher inspires"

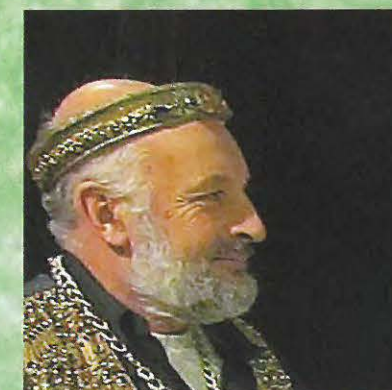

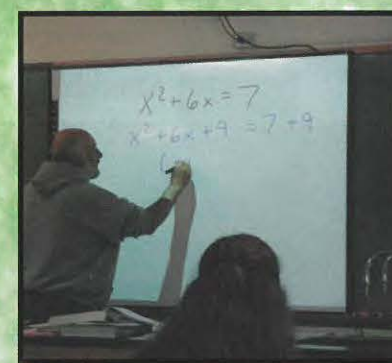

-William Arthur Ward

Mr. William Van Liew inspires all of his students to lead a life that is ethical and moral. His students are inspired to do this because they observe his example. He has great humility which is exemplified by his down to Earth attitude. He attended prestigious Cornell University and could be engaged in a higher paying job. However he loves what he does and his students and realizes that no amount of money could replace that. In this capacity and in so many others, his students can be easily inspired.

One can observe his passion for both science and math. This passion rubs off on his students, making difficult classes such as Physics more enjoyable. This causes his students to do what they love as well, because they see how it pays off. His infectious positive and calm attitude both brighten and soothe students who at times, can be greatly stressed. His sage comments and frank point of view create logical, helpful, and comical pieces of advice that significantly help. This has also given him the affectionate title, Bro Van Liew.

Perhaps no words can perfectly describe the gratitude MSJ and the Class of 2014 in particular have for Mr. Van Liew. We simply hope that he knows how much he means to all of us, and how much he has greatly influenced our lives for the better.

We love you, BVL.

CLASS OF 2014

The past four years at the Mount have been filled with study and guidance. The seniors are now ready to embark on a new life journey. They have grown from rambunctious freshman to serious seniors who are ready to take on the world.

We want to thank our parents for making a Catholic education possible for us. Their generosity and support have made us grow as individuals. We hope the faith can touch each and every senior and help guide and strengthen their lives.

Garth Babb

Adam gets everything I left my mark on in this school. Except for my locker, that goes to whichever unlucky person gets it. Senior year though for Adam; he gets # 191. Got that Adam?

Don't throw away a gift given to you by your favorite brother. Everyone else, I'm gonna miss you all. This is what I've been dreading for for 4 years, I'm afraid to move on and leave all of you behind. I'll see you around.

In 10 years I would expect to be a successful man living with my wife and family OR I'll be pushing a shopping cart around Rutland riding on the shoelace express.

"Always and never are two words you should always remember never to use"
-Wendell Johnson

Jared Bove

All I have to say is good luck to those in the years to come and I hope those years treat everyone well.

In ten years I would like to be somewhere with a warmer climate.

"Getting up in the morning is one of the hardest things to do"
-Anonymous

Zack Lanzillo

Thank you to all the teachers, coaches, and other students for the help over the past four years and good luck to the students in the next years.

In ten years I see myself with a happy family and a good paying job. Hopefully still living in Vermont close to family.

"Always make a total effort, even when the odds are against you"
- Arnold Palmer

Nick Croff

Wow four years went by faster than I could have ever imagined. It seems just like yesterday I got dropped off at school for my first time. Not coming from CKS I was worried about making friends; but that's the great part about MSJ. It is a family and I made lots of great friends.

"Free at last, Free at last"

Mydrel Geffrard

Some good advice to my sister and to the younger generation is to tell them that faith and courage define an individual, not its financial condition. They have to follow their dreams and believe. Never let yourself be discouraged by others. You are the only one who knows your capacity.

In ten years I will be an office manager, I will have created my foundation to help kids go to school, and I will probably be married and have wonderful kids.

*"If God is with me,
who can be against me?"
-Anonymous*

Marie Frances-Georges

Mom and Dad: I want to thank you for always believing in me and always being there for me. Being away from you has not been easy but the support you have given me is incomparable. I always thought you were continuously on my back but I was mistaken. You were not on my back but rather watching my back. Because you never failed to support me in everything I undertook, I never failed to reach success in my life. You are the reason I never understood the meaning of trouble and struggle. Je vous aime beaucoup et encore merci pour tout.

I, Marie-France Georges, leave the following to Lorie S. Dorcé: a whole lot of patience, the ability to make good choices, to always keep her head up and to keep the right group of friends. I will the Juniors the ability to stop procrastinating.

In ten years, I see myself as a Doctor in Business.

*"The ultimate measure of a person is not where they stand in moments of comfort and convenience, but where they stand in times of challenge and controversy".
-Martin Luther King Jr.*

Kittridge Hudson

Wow, four years. Doesn't seem that long ago I was walking into my first class here worrying if I would fit in. And luckily I did. I have so many great memories of this place whether it was Me, Zach, and Nick having every single class together for the last three years spending the time hitting and making fun of each other. Or if it was time spend in the theater with so many great people and great plays. I even have a few from playing football... A few. But the one thing I think I will remember most from MSJ is just the friendliness of all of the people and the family feeling I got while I was here. Whether I was going through good times or bad there were always friends there to either help me through it or celebrate with me. And it wasn't just people in my grade (Although I value all of them very highly) but it was the staff here, the parents, the students that were older and the ones that were younger than me, everybody is so united in this school and I know anybody can be happy here. And to all of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. Enjoy it while you can, it goes by quicker than you could imagine.

To Spencer and Sarah I leave theater, you have both given so much to it and believe me you will only be gaining from it next year! To Tyler, I leave you football, I don't know if its mine to give but you've always given it your all and you deserve it, oh and share it with Mike, and Kevin. To Kyle D. I leave you high school musical and art class. To all of the freshman boys, I leave my legacy, please protect it from Evan and Josh. To Kyle B, you can have whatever you want I guess I honestly don't know what to give you... But I hope you like it! And lastly Charlotte, I leave you the Hudson name, don't worry all of the teachers love me anyways

In ten years I will hopefully have a good job and have my loans paid off! Maybe have a family, but probably not. And I'll definitely be in a much warmer climate, I can't stand the cold.

*"Wait... You mean I can write whatever I want to here and they'll put it in the yearbook?"
-Kit Hudson*

Collin Gilbert

I would like to thank God for all that He has given me. I would like to thank my family for their support and guidance. Also, I would like to wish my classmates best of luck.

I leave Devon the Jeep, my parking spot, and to carry on the Gilbert name. I leave Kevin (the last member of the Fantastic Four) the football team. I leave Joe Loveland something. I also leave KB, ML, KE, KA, SP the basketball bench.

In ten years I will have finished graduate school and be making it happen.

*"These walls are funny. First you hate 'em, then you get used to 'em. Enough time passes, you get so you depend on them...They send you here for life, and that's exactly what they take. The part that counts, anyway."
-Morgan Freeman*

Grace Giancola

My high school experience has been crazy, emotional, and wonderful, and I don't know what I would have done without my incredible support system of family and friends through it all; Mom, Dad, Gabby, Mollie, Joey, thank you for believing in me and pushing me to always do my best. I wouldn't be the person I am today without your help and love. ESmith, thanks for always being my English partner, Claire, thanks for always being there for me no matter what., Gwen, original 2 strong, Maggie, tea toe lives in a tree, Kit, thanks for all the laughs and for making Spanish class bearable (mejor), and Alec, thank you for keeping me sane and smiling through everything as well as for penguins, the London look, and every ounce of love and support you've given me through my second half of high school. <3

Gabby - My car so you can drive Mollie and Joey around and throwing breakfast over the River Street Bridge. Tree, OT, Jill, Amy, and Nicole - the look Devon and Kyra - the cheer team Nicole - cheese sticks and #twitterlessnicole Kyra - The ballet barre by the speaker and my dance spot. You and Maria own that front row now, don't let anyone intrude;) Megan - The neighborhood Josh - B day study halls and duck lips Nate - oyster crackers Jonah and Lucas - Alec's still mine, but I guess I'll let you borrow him every once in a while. BVL - The limit does not exist!

In ten years, I will be living somewhere warm, in a house right on the beach and an awesome tan to go with it.

"Keep your head high, keep your chin up, and most importantly, keep smiling, because life's a beautiful thing and there's so much to smile about."
-Marilyn Monroe

Joshua Pellerin

Thanks Mammy, Mom, Dad, Brendan, and Kiera for always being there for me. Thanks Mr. Z for being a great mentor as well. I couldn't have done it without all of you.

Nate: MSJ; Kevin, Diezel: Johnny Boy's, midnight road trips, Chili's, and peanut butter crackers. JWaz: history, raps, yearbook, newspaper, and inside jokes. Sally: Editorship. Andrew: track teams. Kiera: Best of luck at Mill River.

In ten years I will be a venture capitalist or a corporate lawyer living in the city.

"Love many, trust few. Paddle your own canoe"
-Anonymous

Emmalee Smith

Thanks Mom and Dad! You paid my tuition and dealt with me which is hard to do. Thanks Ms. Fuller for being my number one and always being there for me, supporting me, caring about me. Thanks Grace for being my short buddy and English partner. Thanks MSJ, it's been a fun ride.

Ms Fuller: Poncho Kids and a copy of every novel I ever write from this point onward. Spencer: The title "Pokemon League Champion", A Jaeger Robot, and millions of hugs. Josh Waz: Correct Panera Order. Mrs Bagely: A Broken Leg (Break a Leg). Mrs Audette: Diapers. Mr Audette: a new cowboy hat. Sally: Cross Country Regional Championships. Dylan: Take care of Spencer. Bryton: A new car and a high five! Andrew: Infinite supply of saxophones. Mr P: Highest five.

In ten years I will be living in a small apartment in Albany with three cats: Pickles, Deet Doot, and Newt. I will be teaching English and be working on my 108th novel. I will probably be stressed, depressed, but well dressed.

"We don't make mistakes, we just make happy accidents"
-Bob Ross

Gwen Breslen

Thank you to everyone who has helped me throughout these four years, especially Mom and Dad. I could not have gotten through without you. Maggie, "Don't be a kitty, be a lion" and watch out for squirrels and chipmunks. It's been a great four years (five years of soccer), and we've made many memories. I can't wait for more to come.

Sarah Harvey: Mrs. Fortier, Bryn: Dill Pickle chips, Mr. Audette: Moxie and Good and Plentys for life, Jenna B: The #4, Megan: Nicki Minaj, Dora gummies, and the salsa, Maggie: 5 hour energies, thrift stores, Chick Fil A.

In ten years I'm going to be living next door to Maggles in Maine on the ocean.

Maggie Sanborn

Thank you to Mom, Dad, Matt and Ty for everything you all have done to me. Also, I will never forget all the friends I made at MSJ, thank you all for making high school a great four years! Oh and Gwen? You really need to work on those inspirational quotes you send me and I would say something more but you currently stopped texting me back because "I gtg Red Sox bout to win the series." Nerd. Claire, all I have to say to you is always, always, always, tap to tag first and for future reference please stop walking into glass windows at malls, it's not socially acceptable. But seriously I love you both and high school would not have been bearable without you!

The 'hood-Megan, Jenna and Gabby. The lunch table-Mike, Nate, Megan, and Kyle. The softball team-Sarah and Sally (try not to get hit in the shins anymore). The pool noodle on the car-Kyle, you better keep it there after I'm gone. Sarah-my calc book and all those wrong answers and ridiculous "jokes" Matt wrote in it.

In ten years I will be living right next door to Gween. At this point she will probably have lots of cats.

"Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil"
--Psalm 23:4

David Perry

Thank you to all my teachers for doing everything in your ability each and every day to help me learn all that I can and become a better person along the way. Thank you to all my schoolmates for being open and accepting of me for who I am and always encouraging me to try new things and be myself.

I leave the weight room to Shane, Jonah, Luke, Kevin, and Tyler because I think you are the only guys who actually use it. I leave the football team to Tyler, Kevin, and Mike with the hopes that you guys can continue to lead the team well and hopefully have many more successes next year because you guys deserve it. I leave the basketball team to Henry and Diezel and I wish you the best of luck next season as well. I leave my best wishes with all of my track teammates and I hope that you all continue to improve in whatever events you participate in, and I kindly ask Diezel to not try and break my 800 record because I know you could if you wanted. I leave Kyle Ballard my double-wide locker and Campbell loop. I leave everyone else my best wishes.

In ten years, I hope to be helping people everyday as a pediatrician somewhere in New England.

"A successful man is one who can lay a firm foundation with the bricks others have thrown at him"
- David Brinkley

Claire Schmelzenbach

Attending MSJ has been a privilege. I want to thank my family, teachers, coaches and peers for pushing me. I believe MSJ has prepared me for my future better than any other school could have and I am so grateful. A special shout out to Coach Fortier for being such a great teacher, coach and friend. Get that state title next year! Maggie: I will miss you so much, you are a true friend and someone I really admire. Collin: Thank you for the good memories. Stop hogging the chicken wings. Garth: You'll do great no matter what, buddy. Stay happy. Emmalee: You inspire me. So basically I could say something for everyone in my class. I really have enjoyed these 4 years with you, you're all great people. My advice to people would be to treat every situation as a learning experience and take advantage of all opportunities. There is only one life to live.

I leave Monica all my love and the Schmelzenbach reputation, don't let me down. Jenna: I'm so proud of you, keep being fabulous at everything you do. I leave you team captain. Gabby: Ramunto's dates. Don't worry they're not over! Charlotte: The Fox song. Never should have showed you that. Megan: spiky eyebrows! Michael: I don't really have anything to leave you, but you're awesome. Freshman boys: the choir. Bethany M: the track life. OC: team prayer. You're an inspiration, keep the faith. I will miss you MSJ!

In ten years I will be 27 years old! Clever, I know. But honestly, I will probably be in some foreign country on a military base or training for a Triathlon.

"Don't tell me the sky's the limit when there are footprints on the moon."
-Paul Brandt

Sebastian Smith

I came to MSJ starting my sophomore and am glad I transferred over. I have made a lot of memories here and enjoyed my time here. To all the underclassmen, enjoy it while you're here because it ends fast, especially sports. I would like to thank all my teachers, friends, and family for a great three years here at MSJ.

I would like to leave "The Chunky Boys" to the only remaining member: Nate O'Shea. I leave cheesy history rap videos to Eric DeBlasio, and Josh Waz. I leave "Sebi Sherman" to Kevin Elliott. I leave stat jokes and my parking spot to Joe Loveland.

In ten years I would like to be living in the Boston area with a wife and working as an actuary.

It's not goodbye...

Jennifer Bagley

Mrs. Bagley has worked at MSJ for the past 35 years. In the beginning of her career here she served as an Art and English teacher and then became the Theater Director. She has been an asset to the Fine Arts Department and will be greatly missed. A testament to her significance is the theater, which is named after her. We wish her the very best in her retirement!

George Hooker '67

Mr. Hooker is an alumnus of MSJ and has been the AP Biology teacher for the past few years. He has been loved by his students and is known as being intellectually vital. He will be very missed. We all wish him the best of luck in this next phase of his life!

It's so long for now...

Editor's Letter

Dear Peers, Parents, and Faculty,

Any publication from an organization is supposed to reflect the overall mission of that institution. My greatest hope is that my staff and I were able to encompass this in our work. "Veritas et Puritas" is the motto of our school. It translates from Latin into "Truth and Purity". Like many things in life the beginning is the most important. Truth is an attribute one thirsts to find. Adolescence and early adulthood is the time of discovering the truth; the time in which one questions authority and tests one's limits to unravel it. This is true for all people including saints.

St. Catherine of Siena once said, "Speak the truth as if you had a million voices. It is silence that kills the world". The truth needs to be defended. Deception creates a labyrinth of layers that disguises authenticity. Often times if not protected, it develops a gradual and consistent decline into the deepest shadows of ignorance. Perhaps this is the reason why C.S. Lewis wrote this following quote in The Screwtape Letters: "The greatest evil is not now done in those sordid 'dens of crime' that Dickens loved to paint. It is not done even in concentration camps and labour camps. In those we see its final result. But it is conceived and ordered (moved, seconded, carried, and minuted) in clean, carpeted, warmed and well-lighted offices, by quiet men with white collars and cut fingernails and smooth-shaven cheeks who do not need to raise their voices. Hence, naturally enough, my symbol for Hell is something like the bureaucracy of a police state or the office of a thoroughly nasty business concern". As Lewis eloquently describes, these slow yet deliberate fabrications are hidden underneath the perceptions of that which is becoming the status quo. This progressive downfall is the worst since it is the least detectable. However, there is something we all can do to prevent this.

We all have the capability to be beacons of the truth and allow it to illuminate into the most profound trenches of ignorance. The defense of it is worth disdain, isolation, discomfort, and even punishment. Jesus was a martyr for the truth and transformed the world for the better. Most likely we will all not become saints, but we will still leave imprints on the world; imprints which will last for multitudes of generations to defend the truth and improve the human condition.

Sincerely,

Joshua Pellerin
